4. Criteria

Criterion 1: Concept (40 marks)

This criterion considers the concept idea(s) of the proposal, its relevance to the collaborators involved, and the value added gained by the beneficiary, collaborators and participants:

- a. What is your main research question? What are your goals? What value will the research add to your current creative practice? Furthermore, how will it contribute to the community being engaged with or addressed through the project? Please express your vision, the aims of the research project, its anticipated outcomes and the groundwork you have done to develop the concept. (20 marks)
- b. How is the proposed research project innovative? How would the grant help you to experiment and push boundaries through the work being proposed and the collaborations involved? (10 marks)
- c. Why is this research project important to your artistic development, and to that of your collaborators? How will it help you grow and face any challenges you may have identified at this stage in your creative development? Please provide your track record and / or portfolio, as well as that of your collaborators, in order to explain how this project will further your development as well as that of the collaborators involved. (10 marks)

Criterion 2: Project Management (20 marks)

This criterion considers the level of commitment and preparation that has led to this proposal, as well as the proposed plan to deliver and achieve aims and targets:

- a. Provide a clear plan of the research methodology to be adopted. Provide the rationale for the selected methodology. Include time frames, work plan with collaborators involved, and a step-by-step plan on how the research project will be developed. (10 marks)
- b. Please identify any risks and limitations your research project may face in achieving its targets? (10 marks)

Criterion 3: Audience Engagement (20 marks)

This criterion considers the engagement and the development of established and new audiences, as well as the dissemination plans for the research project. Engagement refers to the nature of involvement and the experience offered to the audience. Dissemination refers to the methods adopted by the applicant to spread the results of the project.

- a. What audiences or communities will this project target, and why? How will the project reach them? Does the project adopt a participatory approach that enables diversity and inclusion? (10 marks)
- b. How will the project document its process for dissemination of information or findings? How sustainable and accessible will the dissemination channels used? (5 marks)
- c. What legacy is the project aiming for? (5 marks)
