Salzburg Global Seminar invites young cultural innovators based in Malta to apply for the 6th annual session of the Young Cultural Innovators Forum, generously supported by Arts Council Malta.

ABOUT THE YOUNG CULTURAL INNOVATORS FORUM

The Young Cultural Innovators (YCI) Forum is a ten-year program designed to nurture the current generation of young cultural innovators through capacity building, mentoring, and global networking. The network is multi-disciplinary and encompasses creative disciplines ranging from the visual and performing arts, literature, and cultural heritage, to foods, fashion, architecture, and design.

The YCI Forum aims to empower the creative sector as a catalyst of economic, social and urban transformation around the globe by linking individuals and communities connected to the program with one another through programs in Salzburg, follow-up events, inter-hub exchanges, cross-border projects, and other activities.

THE PROGRAM IN SALZBURG

The YCI Forum offers an opportunity for two participants from Malta to be part of an intensive program taking place at Schloss Leopoldskron in Salzburg, Austria, from October 22 to 27, 2019. Combining theory and practice, with keynote presentations focusing on “big picture” issues facing the cultural sector and with skills-building sessions on entrepreneurial thinking; human-centered design processes; strategic planning and organizational development; and leadership and values. Selected participants will receive a full scholarship to participate in the YCI program, including the session fee, room and board, and travel costs.

THE YCI HUB APPROACH

With the annual program in Salzburg as its cornerstone, the YCI Forum is structured around a network of YCI Hubs in cities and regions around the world. Each year, up to five YCIs from many of these hubs are selected to join the program in Salzburg. After the Salzburg program, participants continue working together at the local level in their YCI Hub, while also remaining in touch with wider global YCI network worldwide.

Kristina Borg
YCI Fellow 2017

“For these past few years I’ve been having this constant dream of being able to answer the question “Where are you from?” with “I’m a citizen of the world”, where States, nations or borders do not really matter. A utopian dream, one might criticise, but I’m glad to have had the possibility of experiencing this thanks to the YCI Forum.”

Elyse Tonna
YCI Fellow 2017

“For most, it felt like we had been friends for ages – borders, boundaries, judgements inexistent. Brothers and sisters of every background, race, religion – we felt comfortable in expressing our vulnerabilities and concerns, our struggles and ambitions – the world becoming a single family to which we all belong.”

Greta Muscat Azzopardi
YCI Fellow 2018

“The YCI Forum has been hands down the most valuable experience for my art and culture related work so far. For someone who often struggles with the limits to the exposure and experience available within the arts in the Maltese Islands, being connected to such a diverse and brilliant group of arts practitioners hailing from all around the globe has been invaluable.”
