4. Criteria

Criterion 1: Concept (40 marks)

This criterion considers the impact on students' personal development and active engagement in creativity and the arts. Proposals should explore innovative concepts for the engagement of students in a creative environment.:

a. For early years and primary education:

Projects that involve students in the creative process. The use of creativity and exposure to new art forms, skills and techniques as well as teamwork and inclusivity to reach creative objectives set through the project will be considered.

For middle schools, secondary and post-secondary school and tertiary education institutions:

Projects that call on the students' creative skills in engaging within the projects' processes, from the planning and developing stage to the implementation of the project itself. The use of newly acquired skills and techniques as well as teamwork and inclusivity to reach creative objectives set through the project will be considered. (20 marks)

b. For early years, primary schools, middle and secondary school:

Projects which promote new and innovative ideas and expose students to different application of the arts in new contexts, formats, or places. Experimentation, technology, media and student interaction are considered favourably. Projects which complement the curriculum through an interdisciplinary and creative approach for students, educators and creative practitioners alike.

For post-secondary schools and tertiary education institutions:

Projects which push the boundaries of traditional arts, promote new and innovative ideas and help students use the arts in new contexts, formats or places. Experimentation, technology, media and audience interaction are considered favourably. (20 marks)

Criterion 2: Project Management (20 marks)

This criterion considers the opportunities for students to participate and contribute during each phase.

- a. Proposals which maximise the institutions' artistic development opportunities and bring added value to the institution through the outcome and end result. (10 marks)
- b. Projects which help to develop students' creative skills, including new ways of carrying out tasks, exploring different perspectives and problem solving and respond to the different needs and capabilities of students while offering different learning methods and pedagogies. (5 marks)
- c. Projects which expose students to different application of the arts, which may increase participation in the arts at school as well as within the community. Such projects may also increase opportunities for students who do not usually engage in arts or cultural activities. (5 marks)

Mandatory Documentation:

Letter of Intent from collaborators, partners and potential venues
