4. Criteria

Criterion 1: Concept (30 marks)

This criterion reflects the concept of the application; the aims, objectives, and outcomes of the proposal; and the relevance of the concept to the remit of this fund.

The following points should be addressed in not more than 500 words:

- a. Please provide a detailed description of the concept proposed vis-à-vis the priorities of this fund, as identified above. Clearly define the aims, objectives and expected outcomes of this project. (10 marks)
- b. Clearly define the concept's relevance vis-à-vis the development of the artists involved, as well as to the benefit of the partner organisations. (10 marks)
- c. Please provide a description of the co-creative process proposed to achieve the desired outcomes, together with the intersectoral collaborators identified (This should also include evidence of how the proposal gives due consideration to the principles linked to the Right to Culture – Resource Kit and the Charter for the Status of the Artist as in Section 1 of the scheme's Guidelines & Regulations). (5 marks)
- d. What are the plans beyond the implementation of this proposal? (5 marks)

Mandatory Documentation:

- + Add an audio or audiovisual file not exceeding 5 minutes in which you provide a short description, a rationale and/or motivation for submitting this proposal
- + Add files

Additional Documentation:

- + Add files

Criterion 2: Engagement (25 marks)

This criterion reflects the level of engagement with specific community groups, as well as the strength of the proposed dissemination plans.

‘Engagement’ refers to the role, the nature of involvement, and the experience offered to the participants that may also be reached through participatory artistic approaches. Projects should be supporting at least eight encounters with the communities identified, in order to ensure maximum effectivity.

The following points should be addressed in not more than 300 words:

- a. Please provide the plan of engagement and collaboration proposed vis-à-vis the health entities/organisations identified. (10 marks)
- b. Please elaborate on the core audiences (internal and/or external) of the project proposed, particularly those that will directly gain from the health and well-being benefits outlined. How will these audiences be reached? (10 marks)
- c. Please provide an outline of the marketing, PR and communications plan as applicable to the proposed project, and supporting the broader advocacy at the intersection of Culture and Health. (5 marks)

Mandatory Documentation:

- + Add the plan for engagement and collaboration
- + Add the Marketing, PR and Communications plan
- + Add audiovisuals (or a link in case of files exceeding 5MB) if applicable

Additional Documentation:

- + Add files

Criterion 3: Project Management (25 marks)

This criterion reflects the level of commitment and preparation in the run-up to the proposal, as well as the proposed plan to deliver and achieve the activity’s aims and targets.

The following points should be addressed in not more than 300 words:

- a. Please submit a plan for the delivery of the proposed activity. (Kindly include step-by-step time frames, methodology, work plans, respective roles and responsibilities within the project, skill sets, track record, portfolios, logistics plans, as applicable). (5 marks)
- b. Please submit a letter of intent issued by a host/partnering organisation. The letter of intent must include a brief summary of the roles and responsibilities that are being committed. It must also outline the host’s motivation in participating in the project. The host/partnering organisation must also submit their track record and ambitions in the field of culture and health. (10 marks)

- c. What is the degree of flexibility in the planning, given the relevant risks and uncertainties? What are the mitigation measures envisaged in view of the identified risks? (contingency plans, risk assessments, health and safety measures, possible adjustments that may take place). (5 marks)
- d. Please explain the relevance of the proposal to your track record as well as to your ambitions and aspirations in the culture and health field. (5 marks)

Mandatory Documentation:

- + A signed letter of intent from the healthcare or social care entity hosting the project
- + A signed letter of intent from each collaborator

Additional Documentation:

- + Add files

Criterion 4: Budget and sustainability (20 marks)

This criterion considers how well planned and realistic the presented budget plan is.

The following points should be addressed in not more than 300 words:

- a. Is the application, including the budget presented, well-researched and well-planned? (10 marks)
- b. Are the objectives of the project clearly reflected throughout the application and financial plan? (10 marks)

Additional Documentation:

- + Add files
